

News » February 20, 2010 » International » Full story

'Pak has lost 35 billion dollars in war on terror'

Saturday, February 20, 2010, 6:09 [IST]

Search

Subscribe to Newsletter

Islamabad, Feb. 20 (ANI): Pakistan's Minister of State for Economic Affairs, Hina Rabbani Khar, has claimed that the war on terror has cost the country almost 35 billion dollars over the last three years.

Ads by Google

India Tour Packages

Get best and hot tour packages to India. Ask for tour suggestions now

www.DestinationIndia.com/packages

Tours to India

Take Free Help from our Experts in Planning your Tour to India.

www.TraveltoIndia.net/booking

THE Indian Economy Report

Free report on the Indian Economy and the volatile growth to come.

MoneyMorning.com/India_economy

Visiting Hyderabad?

Tell us your Travel Requirements for Free suggestions from Experts www.SouthofIndia.com/Hyderabad

Vuoi Lavorare nella Moda?

Iscriviti ai Corsi di formazione di Accademia. Contattaci ora!

www.Accademiadellusso.com

Watch Indian Pakistani Tv

Watch Geo news Pakistani Tv Channel Watch Aaj tak Zee Tv Neo Cricket

www.paktvlive.com

Need Web Design Help?

Find Qualified Pros. To Lessen Your Workload. Hire Today for $10-50/hr.

www.oDesk.com

The Daily Times quoted Khar, as saying that Pakistan had incurred more losses in the war on terror, as Pakistani casualties were more than the total number of casualties of all the NATO forces combined.

During her meeting with Giuseppe Vegas, Italian deputy minister for economy and finance, she said the public sector development programme allocation for the next fiscal would be curtailed due to the rising cost of war on terror.

Vegas said his government would encourage Italian businessmen and entrepreneurs to invest in Pakistan.

He also showed interest in initiating various development projects in Gilgit-Baltistan, particularly in the tourism sector. (ANI)